A Site License permits Licensee to make multiple copies of the Software and use the copies on the specified number of computers at the same time within a single Site location for internal educational purposes, according to the License Agreement. A "Site" is defined as a single building or campus address of a teaching institution (not a School District) occupying a single building or campus address. Any use outside of this single Site is not permitted, except for home use by students who attend school on this Site. Licensee may not use the Software at more than one Site during any one time period except under a District License as defined below.

A District License applies to all Sites located within a single school district as a legal unit and authorizes the same uses and copying as are permitted under a Site License at each of the Site locations within the District for internal educational uses.

If Licensee obtained the Software from AvScholars or one of its authorized resellers, and subject to Licensee's compliance with the terms of this License Agreement, including the Restrictions in Section 8, Licensee must install and use the Software and documentation in the manner and for the purposes described as follows:

For organizations located in more than one city, each city is considered to be a different site. For organizations, which have multiple locations in the same city, that are administered independently, each location is considered to be a different site. No access from remote campuses or remote sites and no consortia or other forms of subscription sharing are allowed under this Site License.

No other form of electronic transmission or forwarding of material is permitted.

3.5 Detection of Unauthorized Use

A Licensee will not be held liable to AvScholars for unauthorized use of the Software or Online Course provided such use is without the consent of the Licensee. If the Licensee becomes aware of any unauthorized users of the Software or Online Course, it will promptly notify AvScholars, and take all reasonable steps to prevent such unauthorized activities.

4. Fees and Payment

4.1 Your institution shall pay to AvScholars the Multiple-Users License fee for the specified number of authorized users for the software version and/or the online course, which is specified on this website, order form, and/or purchase order. Your institution's payment shall be payable in advance or within thirty (30) days from the date set forth on the AvScholars invoice.

4.2 Payment of the Fees must be made in U.S. dollars, and must be paid via credit card, direct withdrawal from a bank account, or approved purchase order. You grant AvScholars the right to charge the credit card or bank account specified in the applicable Order Form for all Fees incurred under this Agreement. You represent and warrant that if you are purchasing something from AvScholars Publishing that (i) any credit information you supply is true and complete, (ii) charges incurred by you will be honored by your credit card company, and (iii) you will pay the charges incurred by you at the posted prices, including any applicable taxes.

4.3 On the Effective Date, You will remit to AvScholars Publishing a one-time payment of the Fees as set forth on the Order Form based on the number of Authorized-Users License you are purchasing. All Fees are non-refundable. Your obligation to pay Fees not subject to a reasonable dispute will be unconditional and not subject to abatement, setoff or defense of any kind.

4.4 All Fees are non-refundable. Your obligation to pay Fees not subject to a reasonable dispute will be unconditional and not subject to abatement, setoff or defense of any kind.

4.5 All payments are exclusive of any tariffs, duties or taxes imposed or levied by any government or governmental agency. Licensee shall be liable for payment of all such taxes, however designated, levied or based on Licensee's possession or use of the Software or Online Course on this License Agreement, including without limitation, state or local sales, use, value-added and personal property tax, but excluding any tax on the net income of AvScholars.

4.6 Any payment required hereunder that is made late (including unpaid portions if incomplete payment) will accrue interest at 18% per annum (1.5% per month) or the maximum rate permitted by applicable law, whichever is less, from the due date until paid. The parties also agree as follows:(a) Any payment received more than thirty (30) days after becoming due shall be deemed "late" for purposes of this paragraph; and (b)

Any interest charged or paid in excess of the maximum rate permitted by applicable law shall be deemed the result of a mistake and shall be credited or refunded (at AvScholars' option) to Licensee.

4.7 Educational institutions may request a license at anytime during the year.

4.8 You may, at any time during the term of the Agreement, increase the number of licenses which you have purchased upon providing written notice to AvScholars Publishing, together with payment of AvScholars Publishing's then-current Fees associated with such number of additional Authorized-User licenses.

4.9 The Licensee is responsible for any charges associated with accessing the Software, including but not limited to computer equipment, telephone or Internet connections and access software.

5. Administration and Distribution of the Software

The Software for the Site License must be centrally administered within Licensee's educational institution to computers at Licensee's site, which means that there needs to be one employee within Licensee's organization who acts as the license administrator and is the AvScholars point of contact for Licensee's organization. The software will be distributed by electronic means to the name and email address of the license administrator that was designated on the Site License Agreement Form and the order form or purchase order. At the time of purchase, or upon acceptance of the purchase order by AvScholars, the license administrator will receive an email confirmation that will include links and instructions for downloading and registering the software.

The Licensee's license administrator is responsible for duplicating and distributing the software and upgrades to the computers covered under the license, for adding on to the size of the license when necessary if the number of computers at your organization increases, and for monitoring the number of copies licensed by your organization. Backup CDs are available at the time of purchase for US $9.95 each.

The registration code will enable Licensee to activate and register the Software. Licensee may not re-license, reproduce or distribute any registration code except with the express written permission of AvScholars. If the Software that Licensee have licensed is an upgrade or an update, then the update or upgrade terminates the previously licensed copy of the Software to the extent it is being replaced. The update or upgrade and the associated license keys does not constitute the granting of a second license to the Software in that Licensee may not use the upgrade or update copy in addition to the copy of the Software that it is replacing and whose license has terminated.

7. Software Activation.

7.1 The Software may use your internal network and Internet connection for the purpose of transmitting license-related data at the time of installation, registration, use, or update to AvScholars' third party-operated license server and validating the authenticity of the license-related data in order to protect AvScholars against unlicensed or illegal use of the Software and to improve customer service. Activation is based on the exchange of license related data between your computer and AvScholars' third party license server. Licensee agrees that AvScholars may use these measures and Licensee agrees to follow any applicable requirements. Licensee further agree that use of license registration codes that are not or were not generated by AvScholars and unlawfully obtained from AvScholars, or an authorized reseller as part of an effort to activate or use the Software violates AvScholars' intellectual property rights as well as the terms of this License Agreement. Licensee agree that efforts to circumvent or disable AvScholars' copyright protection mechanisms or license management mechanism violate AvScholars' intellectual property rights as well as the terms of this License Agreement. AvScholars expressly reserves the rights to seek all available legal and equitable remedies to prevent such actions and to recover lost profits, damages and costs.

7.2 The terms and conditions of the Privacy Policy are set out in full at <http://www.financialaidscholarshipworkshop.com/privacypolicy.html> and are incorporated by reference into this License Agreement. In the event any dispute or controversy arising out of or relating to this License Agreement, the parties agree to exercise their best efforts to resolve the dispute as soon as possible. The parties shall, without delay, continue to perform their respective obligations under this License Agreement which are not affected by the dispute. If AvScholars and Licensee cannot resolve the dispute after reasonable effort and a reasonable period of time, the parties agree to resolve the dispute using either mediation and/or arbitration in lieu of litigation. {The mediation clause and arbitration clauses may be chosen together, or the arbitration clause may be chosen by itself.}

a. Mediation. AvScholars and Licensee may submit a dispute to a neutral, non-binding mediation prior to the commencement of arbitration, litigation, or any other proceeding before a trier of fact. The parties to the dispute or claim agree to act in good faith to participate in mediation, and to identify a mutually acceptable mediator. (If a mediator cannot be agreed upon by the parties, each party shall designate a mediator and those mediators shall select a third mediator who shall act as the neutral mediator, assisting the parties in attempting to reach a resolution.). AvScholars and Licensee will share equally in the cost of the mediator(s), and commit to completing at least four hours of mediation before seeking any other dispute resolution method, legal remedy, or equitable remedy. If the mediation is successful, its resolution will be documented by a written agreement executed by all parties. If the mediation does not successfully resolve the dispute or claim, the mediator shall provide written notice to both parties. At this point, Licensee and AvScholars may seek another alternative form of resolution of the dispute or claim, consistent with the remaining terms of this License Agreement and other legal rights and remedies, or commence litigation.

The parties shall select a mutually acceptable arbitrator knowledgeable about issues relating to the subject matter of this License Agreement. (In the event the parties are unable to agree to such a selection, each party will select an arbitrator and the arbitrators in turn shall select a third arbitrator.) All documents, materials, and information in the possession of each party that are in any way relevant to the claim(s) or dispute(s) shall be made available to the other party for review and copying no later than 45 days after the notice of arbitration is served. The arbitrator(s) shall not have the authority, power, or right to alter, change, amend, modify, add, or subtract from any provision of this License Agreement or to award punitive damages. The arbitrator shall have the power to issue mandatory orders and restraining orders in connection with the arbitration. The award rendered by the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in any court having jurisdiction. The agreement to arbitration shall be specifically enforceable under prevailing arbitration law. During the continuance of any arbitration proceeding, the parties shall continue to perform their respective obligations under this License Agreement.
